Section 4. Transfers: Transfers of shares shall be made upon the books of the Corporation only by the holder in person or by power of attorney, duly executed and filed with the secretary of the Corporation and on the surrender of the certificate for such shares, except that shares sold by the Corporation to satisfy any lien which it holds thereon may be transferred without the surrender of the certificate representing such shares. No transfer of shares shall be valid as against the Corporation, its shareholders and creditors for any purpose except to render the transferree liable for the debts of the Corporation to the extent provided for in the Business Corporation Law of the State of Ne York or any applicable provision of law, until it shall have been entered in the shares ledger, or as required by any then existing applicable provision of law, by an entry stating from who and to whom transferred. Unless and until such shareholder as Lessee shall make default in the payment of any of the rental or in the performance of any of the covenants or conditions of such proprietary lease, and/or unless and until such shareholder shall make default in the payment of any indebtedness or obligation owing by such shareholder to the Corporation otherwise arising, such shares shall continue to stand in the name of the shareholder upon the books of the Corporation, and the shareholder shall be entitled to exercise the right to vote thereon as though said lien did not exist. The Corporation shall have the right to issue to any purchaser of such shares upon the enforcement by the Corporation of such lien, or to the nominee of such purchaser, a certificate of the shares to be purchased substantially of the tenor of the certificate for such shares theretofore issued to such defaulting shareholder and the certificate issued to such defaulting shareholder shall become void and such defaulting shareholder agrees to surrender such last mentioned certificate to the Corporation upon the latter's demand, but the failure of such defaulting shareholder so to surrender such certificate shall not affect the validity of the certificate issued in replacement thereof. The Corporation may refuse to consent to the transfer of shares of any shareholder indebted to the Corporation unless and until such indebtedness is paid.

Section 7. Lost Certificates: In the event that any share certificate is lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated, the Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of a new certificate of the same tenor and for the same number of shares in lieu thereof. The shares represented by this certificate are transferable only as an entirety and only to an approved assignee of such proprietary lease. Copies of the proprietary lease and the By-Laws are on file and available for inspection at the office of the managing agent of this Corporation.

The directors of this Corporation may refuse to consent to the transfer of the shares represented by this certificate until any indebtedness of the shareholder to the Corporation is paid. The Corporation, by the terms of said By-Laws and proprietary lease, has a first lien on the shares represented by this certificate for all sums due and to become due under said proprietary lease."

Section 9. Rights and Obligations of Holders of Unsold Shares. The Apartment Corporation has entered into an agreement with the holders of Unsold Shares (as such term is defined in the Offering Plan) regarding the rights and obligations of the holders of Unsold Shares. Under this agreement, the holders of Unsold Shares are given additional rights and benefits and the Apartment Corporation is restricted from taking certain actions, not reflected in these by-laws. Said agreement is set forth in the subsection of the Offering Plan entitled "Unsold Shares" and is incorporated in these "By-Laws".
